Spring into Woodinville

Woodinville and Sammamish Valley farms unite for a spring celebration!

ATTRACTIONS

Sammamish Valley Alliance Spring Celebration | Grange Heritage Garden | 11-3pm

- Herb Garden Tour
- Display Garden Tour
- Farmer Alyssa Q&A
- Grange Garden Rededication Ceremony

The grange heritage garden is unique, as it is accessible only via the trail by walking or riding, and not by car. The gated entrance is located .5 miles south of Wilmot Park in Woodinville or about one mile north of the Hollywood district.

Pollinator Fest | 21 Acres | 10-3pm

- Pollinator garden tours
- Kids' garden tour
- Kids' craft booths
- Music
- Vendors
- Talks
  - Native Plants: Combining Beauty with Water Conservation | Peggy Campbell
  - Culturally Significant plants of the NW Coastal Tribes | Linzie Crofoot
  - Washington Native Bee Society
  - How to host non-stinging Mason Bees | Dave Hunter

Hosted by Pollinator Pathway NW, Pollinator Fest is a family-friendly event promoting pollinator health and habitat in the PNW.

Woodinville Garden Club Annual Plant Sale | Woodinville Alliance Church | 9AM

For 38 years we've brought an abundance of luscious tomatoes, spectacular hanging baskets, popular perennials, colorful annuals, veggies, houseplants and garden delights to the Woodinville community. Join the crowd in finding plants and friends at this annual Mother's Day weekend event.

Molbaks Mother's Day Weekend | 9-7PM

- Shop Molbak's wide assortment of natives and pollinator plants
- Check out Molbak's events calendar

Molbak's carries a large selection of native plants from Oxbow Farm in Carnation. Not sure where to begin? Ask a Molbak's team member to show you around!

Woodinville Farmers Market | 10-3PM

- Visit the Master Gardener's booth for info on pollinator-friendly plants
- Seed planting at the kids' tent

This marks the second weekend of the market's summer season. Come by and enjoy local fruits and vegetables, flowers, boutique baked goods, artisanal foods and beverages and much more.
